

“Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

Galatians 6:7-8

Curiosity

(A devotional taken from Words of Life, page 59, January – April 2019, written by a former Ottawa Citadel Corps Officer, Major Beverly Ivany -
- based on Deuteronomy 13: 1-11)

If a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams ... says, 'and let us worship them' you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. (vv 1-3)

Many of us have heard the expression, ‘Curiosity killed the cat.’ It is a proverb warning of dangers that lie in experimentation. Curiosity hasn’t received very good press over the years. Saint Augustine wrote in his Confessions of AD 397 that, long before creating Heaven and earth, God ‘fashioned hell for the inquisitive’. Pretty strong words! In Don Juan, Lord Byron called curiosity ‘that low vice’. We might disagree – thinking curiosity is rather good and sometimes even fun! But when it beckons us away from what is right and holy, curiosity then becomes very dangerous.

In today’s passage of Scripture the Lord is telling his people that in the new land men and women will try to entice them to worship their gods; prophets and dreamers might appear to be somewhat appealing. The Israelites were not to be fooled by them, not to ‘listen’ to them. God said all this in order to see where they were spiritually:

The Lord your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul. It is the Lord your God you must follow, and him you must revere. Keep his commands and obey him; serve him and hold fast to him (vv 3-4).

Lots of things are ‘out there’ to lure us away from the Lord, and sometimes curiosity can get the better of us. We wonder: ‘What would it be like? Others seem to be enjoying themselves, so why not me? Who will ever know if I give it a try? I only have one life!’

If curiosity can ‘kill a cat’, how much more will yielding to temptation harm us – in ways we can’t even begin to imagine? As followers of Christ we are to always be so careful. To stay very close to him. To love the Lord supremely – with all our heart, soul and spirit.

Prayer: Keep me pure, Lord, and true to you.

59. Fruit of the Spirit

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance, against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affection and lusts. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another. (Galatians 5:22-26 KJV)

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit let us keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other. (Galatians 5:22-26 NIV)

SPRING into SUMMER – A FIESTA OF MUSIC

On the evening of Sunday, June 23rd, the Ottawa Citadel Band, Songsters, Worship Team, Timbrels and Special Guests Hosted an Uplifting Concert of Music. 191 People Gathered for the Event and 825 have Viewed the Concert on You Tube Thus Far.

Majors Jim and Michelle Mercer Aply Led the Program.

We were Blessed to have Kim Lapp, who is a Professional Photographer by Trade, Provide us with an Amazing Array of Visual Memories of this Concert.

Please Enjoy the Photos on the Next Four Pages.

At Left: Getting Ready for the Concert

The Members of the Band Assemble on the Platform

The Band Opens with the March, Life Savers by Andrew Mackereth.

Majors Michelle and Jim Mercer effectively served as Emcees for the Program. They welcomed everyone here.

Two Shots of the Trombone Quintet Performing Sunshine Corner by Ray Steadman-Allen featuring Jason Lind, John van Gulik, Gordon Smith, Gary Brown and Darlee Goma

The Songsters sang Come Let Us Sing by Kingsley Layton; Worthy by Emma Pears, arr. Simon Gash, and Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit by Lloyd Larson. Laurie Linklater led the Songsters accompanied by Maureen Hutchinson.

The Ottawa Citadel Timbrel Brigade performed a scintillating, illuminated drill to the Band's playing of the March, Star Lake by Eric Ball.

The Timbrel Brigade includes: Lader Lemvo, Myriame Ndombele, Lucette Lemvo, Lazarette Lemvo, Stacy Kesia, Lazarelle Lemvo, Mriame Louembo, Promise Goma, Kaveylne Lumuangu, Georgette Lefu, Blandine Lumuangu, and Jaydeen Kanza.

Well Done!

Songsters Sang Three Numbers:
 Your Grace Still Amazes Me* by Shawn Craig & Connie Heatherington, arr. Simon Gash
 I Bless Your Name* by Elizabeth Goodine, arr. Graeme Press, Soloist: Abigail Oreste (Left)
 Bow the Knee* by Chris Machen & Mike Harland, arr. Tom Fettke
 Far Left: Laurie has the Brigade stand to acknowledge the applause.

Majors Michelle and Jim Mercer provided a highly sensitive and effective Devotional after which the Songsters sang, Lord, Listen to Your Children by Ken Medema, arr. Jack Schrader – a most suitable conclusion to the time of reflection.

The Band played its final two selections for the evening: The Break of Day by Steven Ponsford and Blood of the Lamb by Ian Feltwell.

At Left: Following the closing courtesies, the Band went rogue and, instead of playing the accompaniment for the closing song as conducted by Geoff, the Band took its lead from Brent in the Solo Cornet section and played Happy Birthday as arranged by Laurie. The concert actually took place on Geoff's "39th" Birthday????

The Band got down to business and played Leonard Ballantine's arrangement of Joyful, Joyful as the congregation joined in singing a happy conclusion to the Fiesta of Music Concert.

Please Enjoy the Array of Kim's Photos on Pages 7-A & B for many candid shots on the June 23rd event.

AFTER the CONCERT

Warm congratulations to everyone who participated in this very special event in whatever way – especially to the appreciative audience who gathered to support it.

Did You Know?

The Salvation Army began dispensing food and drinks near Ground Zero less than an hour after the 2001 terrorist attacks on the Twin Towers. In our nearly nine months of service there, 40,000 Salvation Army volunteers, staff and officers assisted 4.5 million people with meals, pastoral counseling and social services. The Canada and Bermuda Territory sent 24 teams of workers to New York City from October 2001 until July of 2002.

UPDATE
on
BUILDING ISSUES

Your Building Advisory Committee (BAC) last met on Wednesday, May 22nd at 1:00 pm.

In the meantime, work has continued on a couple of projects as follows:

- 1. Backflow Valve Installation:
The work was completed on Thursday, July 25th. This required the shut-off of the water supply to the Corps building and, as a result, the building had to be closed for the day. (Photo on the right.)
- 2. Price Quotations for the Flooring Replacement in the Kitchen, Fellowship/Nursery Rooms and the Corridors is still a work in progress but details should be available soon. Application will be made to Headquarters to release funds in our account to cover the cost of the flooring removal and replacement.

Celebrating the Wedding of Abigail and Ginton Hanover

Saturday, July 20th was the date of a beautiful ceremony at Ottawa Citadel in which Abigail Oreste and Ginton Hanover were joined together in Holy Matrimony before a large congregation of witnesses. We wish the Hanovers many years of happiness as they serve the Lord together. Below are just a few of the many photos that were taken of the service led by Major Erin Verhey.

More Pictures from Abigail & Ginton's Wedding

Congratulations and God's Richest Blessings on the Happy Couple!

Congratulations to Ottawa Citadel's 2024 Graduates

Rowan Ferguson

Rowan is graduating from Grade 12. She will be attending Carleton University in the Bachelor of Music Program with a possible future career in teaching. We all wish Rowan every success as she pursues her chosen career.

Liryn Maillet

Liryn is also graduating from Grade 12. She will be attending Algonquin College en route to studying Dental Hygiene. We all wish Liryn every success as she pursues her chosen career.

AN OLD FRIEND SENDS HER GREETINGS

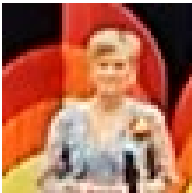

Shirley Danis attended Ottawa Citadel for many years and was active in a number of groups at the Corps. She extends greetings to all of her friends at the Citadel.

At the left is a photo in which Shirley is wearing red in honour of Canada Day as we were all asked to do on Sunday, June 30th to mark Canada Day at the Corps.

Worship Service Leaders During the Summer Absence of Our Corps Officers

Ottawa Citadel is blessed, indeed, to have so many people upon whom we can count to lead our Sunday Worship Services as well as special events such as weddings and funerals. Here are the folks who have stepped into the role thus far this summer:

	Sunday, July 7th Leader: ACSM Jorden McDormand spoke on the theme, Make Me a Channel		Sunday, July 14th Leader: Len Goddard spoke on the theme, What are You Worth?
	Saturday, July 20th Leader: Major Erin Verhey officiated at the wedding of Abigail and Glinton.		Sunday, July 21st Leader: Trinette Goddard spoke on the theme, Beauty for Ashes
	Saturday, July 27th Leader: Major Erin Verhey officiated the Celebration of Life for Fred Lang		Sunday, July 28th Leader: Ann Hardman spoke on the theme, Rest and Recharge with the support of our Youth
	Sunday, August 4th Leader: CSM Linda Colwell, spoke on the theme, Changed by the Parades.	Our sincere appreciation to these fine folks who led our recent Worship Services.

I Am Thankful

FOR A LAWN THAT NEEDS MOWING, WINDOWS THAT NEED CLEANING, AND GUTTERS THAT NEED FIXING

BECAUSE IT MEANS I HAVE A HOME.

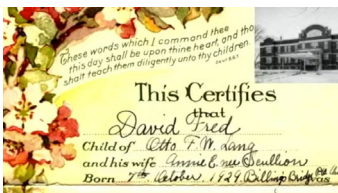

Celebration of Life
 - Fred Lang -
 Saturday, July 27, 2024

More than 180 people – family, friends and many who knew and respected a former Corps member, gathered at the Corps on Saturday, July 27th to Celebrate the Life of Fred Lang, a long-time member of Ottawa Citadel.

Family members paid beautiful tributes to their beloved father and grandfather. The love and respect they shared was powerfully brought together by Major Erin Verhey.

It would not be appropriate, nor indeed, possible to adequately attempt to sum up all that was said by family members. Their beauty and significance would be lost by attempting to encapsulate in a few words here. Those who were unable to join in the Celebration of Life Service may wish to have a look at the Ottawa Citadel web site on which the service was recorded. A few pictures that were shared are posted below.

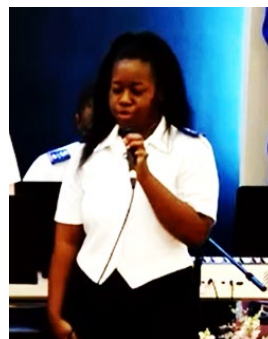

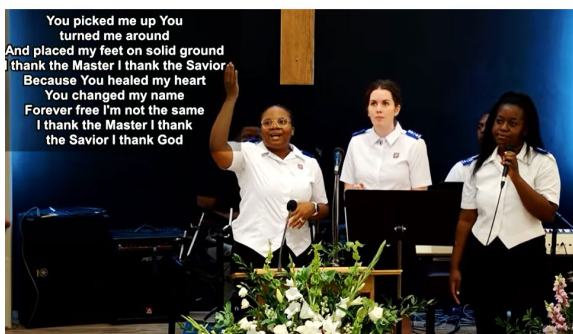

Fred's Grandchildren

PARTICIPANTS in OUR YOUTH SUNDAY July 28th, 2024

The following collection of photos is not intended to provide a visual summary of the very effective worship service with which we were blessed. Rather, the following are the highlights of the leadership provided to today's service. Ann Hardman, our Youth Leader on the Mission Board, along with various group leaders and numerous young people did a marvelous job of conducting Sunday's service.

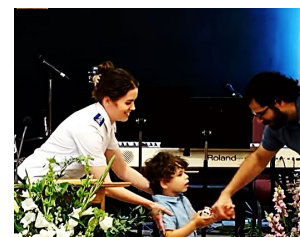

Above: John conducted the Band; Right: Stacey and Becca led the song, I Stand Amazed; Far Right: Rowan solos accompanied by her Mom, Jessica – You Say

The Junior Worship Team led the congregation in singing two Praise & Worship songs after which Veronica led us in prayer.

James prayed in Recognition of the Tithes & Offerings

Jessica led the Songsters in Laurie's absence. They sang, Jesus, All for Jesus

Stacey and Becca led the Congregational Song, Who Comes to Me

Ann's timely Message, Rest & Recharge opened as a duet until her assistant, James jr. made a hasty retreat.

Far Left: David sang and played the Appeal Song, Jesus, Be the Centre
Left: Jaydeen did a fabulous job of leading the Closing Song, What a Wonderful Change (encouraged by Guerline)

Kathy thanked all the participants and led the sung Benediction, This. This is the God we Adore.

Humour of Lindsay Cox & Friends

Hey! I signed up for the Bass Drum not this fancy stuff !

Playing by ear !

I'm tuning the Drum to 'F' ... as it's shown on the Stave

But you advertised for a Conductor

Cymbalic !

After 50 years as the Corps pianist, Gladys made a genuine effort to adjust to the new worship style.

Can You Find Esther and Jane in this Gathering?

Thanks, once again, to Jane Moulton for gathering all the Salvation Army "Funnies" for us!

Because the Lord is my Conductor,
I have everything I need!
He gives me rest in 'Deep Harmony',
He leads me to music that's 'My Strength, My Trust and Obey'
and 'Live my Life for Jesus'.
Even when going through 'The Darkest Valley',
I am not afraid because 'I Know Thee Who Thou art' and 'The Light of the World' is close beside I
'I Am So Glad' that 'All's Well With My Soul',
and 'For This I Have Jesus'.
As the 'Roll is Called Up Yonder'
and I 'Climb the Golden Stairs to Glory',
'I Will Sing of Your Mercy Forever',
because 'My Redeemer I Live!'
